With over 8 years of customer service experience, I have a wide range of skills and am easily able to pick up new skills to complete whatever my job requires. I strive to deliver excellent customer service in everything that I do. I'm known for having a bubbly attitude, clear communication, and a strong sense of organization. I thrive in fast paced environments where attention to detail and flexibility are key. I am equally comfortable leading a team or diving into hands-on work. No matter the job, I'm all in — committed to excellence, growth, and great vibes along the way.
